wery bright.

The popular Campbell county leader has a great many friends among the farmers of the State as well as among the soldiers, he having followed the fortunes of Lee and Lackson through four years of war. and Jackson through four years of war. SAYS FLOOD WHAL WIN.

CONSIDERING APPOINTMENTS.

Colonel Anderson at Work on Staff Officers-Military News.

Colonel George Wayne Anderson, the new Colonel of the Seventieth Kegiment, Virginia Volunteers, is considering the staff appointments which he has at his disposal, but further than that of Adjutant C. Gray Bossieux, which has already been anounced, he has not determined upon them. Colonel Anderson said this morning that the offices among he intended to distribute the offices among the different companies, as far as possible and until he can hear from some out-of-town men he would not be ready to make any further announcements. He did not think, however, that there was any cause for hurry in the matter.

Following is the list of officers to be appointed by Colonel Anderson:

Surgeon, with rank of Major; Adjutant. with rank of Captain; Quartermaster, with rank of Captain; Commissary of Subsist-ence, with rank of First Lieutenant; Ordnance Officer, with rank of First Lieu-tenant; Chaplain, with rank of First Lieu-The non-commissioned staff officers are as follows:

Sergeant Major, Quartermaster Sergeant, Commissary Sergeant, Ordnance Sergeant and Hospital Steward. The inspection of the military of the State has been of a most satisfactory na-ture this year, and the report of Assistant Inspector-General Jo Lane Stern, which will shortly be filed with the Adjutant General, is expected to show a great im-provement over those of former years. The Adjutant General is very happy over the outlook for having a very high class of military in the State when the reorgani-zation, under the new law, shall have been completed. He speaks in the most complimentary terms of the new colonels of the Seventieth and Seventy-first Regiments, and in fact all the officers and men. He believes Virginia is going to be up to date soon in military matters.

GOV. TYLER BACK,

He Is Much Pleased With the Farmville Fair.

Governor Tyler, accompanied by Miss Lillie Tyler and Major Heth Tyler, went up to Farmville yesterday to attend the Fair at that place and returned last night.

The Governor is much pleased with his trip and says the Fair was a most creditable one. He paid the highest compilments to the horses, the agricultural exhibits and the handiwork of the ladies. There was a tournament and the Governor deliv-tred the charge to the knights. While in Farmville Governor Tyler was the guest of Major Charles Walker, who proved a most delightful host.

Assistant Secretary of War Wants Some Matters in Democratic Platform Cleared Up for Him-

(By Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, October 12.—Hon. George D.
Meiklejohn. Assistant Secretary of War, has mailed the following letter to Hon. W. J. Bryan, which the latter will re-W. J. Bryan, ceive to-day: "Chicago, Ills, October 11, 1900.

"Chicago, Ills, October II, 1909.
"Dear Sir,—In your communication to me of the 10th inst. you refer to the fact that the Republican party adheres to its doctrine that the Constitution cannot be extended to new territory acquired by the treaty making power of our Government, nor by the military commanders of our armies. You then declare that, therefore, the Pres dent was not obliged to refuse his approval to that portion of the Sulu agreement which permitted the temporary contin-uance of alleged slavery in the Sulu Islands.

"The point to which I called your attention in my communication was that the President did refuse his approval and, therefore, the portion of the agreement is not existing. I am gratified that you direct attention to the fact that the present administration does not require the force of constitutional provision to prompt it to recognize the rights of men.

"Permit me, however, to call your attention to the concluding words of the amendment to the Constitution to which you ment to the Constitution to which you refer:

"'Neither slavery nor involuntary servitude shall exist within the United States. or any place subject to their jurisdiction."

"While amendments to the Constitution are under consideration, will you give an explanation of the discrepancy between your platform this year and the one on which Tilden made his canvass. Your platform declares:
"We, the representatives of the Democratic party of the United States, assem-bled in national convention on the anti-versary of the adoption of the Drelaration of Independence, do reaffirm our faith in that immortal proclamation of the in-alienable rights of man and our allegiance to the Constitution framed in harmony therewith by the fathers of the republic.

"As framed by the fathers of the republic, the Constitution recognized slavery and provided that a slave escap-ing into a free State did not become free public. and must be returned to his owner-Article IV, section 2, clause 3. The Con-stitution as framed by the fathers did not contain the gurantees for the rights of our colored citizens, provided by the 14th and 15th amendments. The Tilden platform declared as folcountry, we do hereby affirm our faith in the permanence of the Pederal Union, our devotion to the Constitution of the United States with its amendments, universally accepted as a final settlement of the controversics that engendered civil war, and do here record our stead-fast confidence in the perpetuity of Republican self-government. 'Why does your platform refuse adherence to the amendments to the Constitution? "In view of your present contention, might I beg to request an explanation of the concluding words of the Chicago plat-form of 1896, on admission of territories, 'We recommend that the Territory of Alaska be granted a delagate in Con-ress, and that the general land and tim-ber laws of the United States be extended
